Of Interest to Farmers

Farmers who desire to utilize their surplus cattle feed during the coming winter for fattening purposes are offered special inducements by the Canadian Pacific railway to add to their herds by a reduction in freight rates of the company on cattle returned from Calgary, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Moose Jaw or Saskatoon to country points.

Canadian Pacific railway officials announce that the reduced rates will be come effective immediately and will apply to cattle returned for breeding, following or feeding. This reduced rate is intended as an inducement on account of the fact that this year there is an unusually small amount of grain in the country that will not go to mill and farmers will find it very profitable to use this for the preparation of stock for market.

These rates apply to stations in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta except stations west of Camrose in Alberta, and only consignment returned to farmers for breeding, finishing or feeding on production of signed certificate of particulars of which will be furnished by the railway agent bearing the signature of the local secretary of the grain growers association and that of the provincial secretary of the same association.

Chestnuts

(From the Trumbull Cheer for August.) When a woman sees her husband's razor sharpen a pencil, she usually gives him into a bad temper.
Never expect to findings bottom in your mud—it may be needed for the discarding.
(Wov.)

Of course, having your leg pulled makes you short.

Come in without knocking and go out the same way.

Don't wait for the boss, be an self-starter.

Two publicity men were attending a social function, they arrived early and were watching the other guests come in.
Presently a lady entered, heavily laden with diamonds. The two gazed in astonishment.

"Some display in front," said one.
Just then the lady turned. The dress was cut extremely low in the back.
"Yes," agreed the other, "and some cut on the back cover."

A European tourist some time ago was claiming to an American citizen that America was far behind the other countries in water play. "Take England," said he, "they have their Bath; France has her Aix les Bains; Germany, her Baden; Italy, her San Remo; and the United States," he said, "they have their San Francisco."
The American citizen said: "Sunday Night."

(Oh you San Francisco.)

A Tacoma traveller tells about a young boy who had been brought up very exclusively by his widowed mother. In fact, up to the time he was to go to college, he had only met one boy, and two girls, so secluded had their mamma kept him. After the boy went into college alone, she became greatly worried, fearing for his welfare after so much seclusion, and so hurried after him. She found him out, and so went down to wait he waited and waited and waited until finally in the wee small hours of the morning appeared. He at once threw himself in her food arms and sobbed and sobbed and sobbed. "Why don't you, poor little fellow, I have just been out with my friend taking two chorine girls out to lunch after the theater, and the other horrid thing says I want to go to Santa Clara, too, how lovely!"

No, the fellow who fell out of the window hadn't been drinking, even if he did take a drop too much.

Blairmore Social Club

At a meeting of citizens held in the Oddfellows hall on Monday night, the tended, and was presided over by Mr. L.

The Preacher Man

Lives of preacher men remind us

That in this cold world of sin.

When some woman cannot boss us

Then our troubles do begin.

If the preacher's young and zealous

Then the older women say,

Mr. Jones may be just be jealous—

For that preacher's there each day.

If a sweet-faced, lovely member,

Wise the preacher as his best,

Then the other ladies, forsaken—

Say—that preacher's he must go.

If the preacher's old is older Than the Scottish lady thinks

Should be sent to them. Behold her Smouldering the sacred links.

Lives of preachers thus grow weary

For no one can please them all.

If you're tall you should be shorter,

If you're short you should be taller.

If you're fat you should be thinner,

Fatter if you now are thin.

Something sure will be the matter

With your eyes, your nose, your chin.

If you're married, then a single

May be just what they desire.

If you're single, then you're bound to Wed the girl that leads the choir.

So just what you are don't matter.

What they want is what you ain't.

If you're glum—they don't want you;

If you're "loose," they want a suit.

If you live they want you quiet,

Quiet—then they want more fire.

There's no living man or angel

Who can be what all require.

the convention at Lethbridge this ing at the Bellevue hospital for some time, has accepted a position similar at the military hospital at Frank.

James Alsopp has a sample of his home-grown "spuds" on exhibition in P. Burns' window and the twelve spuds weigh 13 pounds and 10 ounces. Some sample, eh!

The sacrament of baptism was administered by Rev. A. J. Law on Sunday last, when the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Calderwood, of Hillcrest, was baptized.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hutton, of Bellevue, have received word that their son George has been wounded at the front. This is the second time his life has been wounded within a short time.

Some of Bellevue's young men who have been in the habit of taking a young lady to her home in Hillcrest and afterwards escorting a couple of others from the Hillcrest station had better be careful or someone will be taking action.
Nuff said.

Rev. Dr. Huettner, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance for Alberta and British Columbia, delivered an interesting lecture at the Methodist church on Sunday night on the subject "The War and National Ideals." A large audience turned out to hear him.

Mrs. James Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hutton, has arrived from Scotland. Her husband has been called up for service in the Old Country. This is five sons-in-law that Mr. and Mrs. Hutton have doing their bit for King and Empire. Not a bad record.

"Bob" Evans made a trip to Calgary this week with a load of passengers. He intends making weekly trips while the weather will permit, and is charging the same fare as the C.P.R. with a day's run to Calgary, two night's stay and a return home. Those who have undertaken the trip say it is just splendid.

Cowley Happenings

John Kemmis, M.L.A., made a flying business trip to Calgary this week.

Mrs. Homer Morrison is spending a short visit with friends in Blairmore.

Mrs. Murphy has been ill for the major part of the past week with a touch of grippe.

The 192nd Battalion is still under canvas at Sarcee camp, despite the hurried call to men on leave.

The Alberta Pacific Grain Company has re-opened its Cowleyevator, with Mr. R. H. Powley in charge.

"Grain yields that have been reported so far have been above the average expected and the quality is very good."

R. B. McKewen, of Michel, made a visit to Cowley on Monday. Mr.
McKewen handles Mr. Powlett's dairy business in that town.

The snowstorm, which was general on October first, made the chicken shooting very good, forcing the birds out into the grain stacks.

P. J. Ryan has gone to his old home in Ontario, to remain there permanently, if the climate will allow him. Paddy's cheerful face will be missed.

Mrs. Wm. Howie, we regret to learn, is gone to the Lethbridge hospital. Her illness, Mr. Howie states, may involve an operation, and in the meantime Mr. Howie has cancelled his road trip.

The grain shipping started out with a rush, but the long expected storm arrived and has for three days now tied up all threshing and baling. It has increased in severity, so that there are now several inches of snow on the ground.

Mrs. McKewen heard from her son Sandy this week. The letter, dated September 10th, left him in good health, but just going into the trenches again. He stated that Paddy McLean and Bob Baker, both of whom have been reported wounded, were again back with their units.

Peter McEwen went to Calgary the other day with the object of enlisting, and passed all tests successfully with the exception of eyesight. His mother gave up his idea he joined the Home Guard and was sent to the detachment at Castle, where there is an internment camp. We learn that he has been detained to the mess tent.

Mackintosh have left for the Lacrosse district, where they have taken up a lease of a coal mine.

A meeting of the local committee of the Patriotic Fund was held on Tuesday evening. A report was submitted showing that since November 15th last the employees of the Franco-Canadian Collieries Co. had subscribed $2,789 to the fund.
Several amounts have from time to time been forwarded to the South Alberta Branch and the local Red Cross. At Tuesday's meeting $700 was voted to the Patriotic Fund headquarters at Calgary. It is itemized statement will appear in these columns later.
